

Late winter blizzard hits Quad-City area

March may come in like a lion and go out like a lamb, but February seems sure to be a reversal of that tradition. After nearly a month of above normal temperatures, Quad-Cityans were beginning to think spring—at least until yesterday.

A late winter storm dumped between 2 to 6 inches of snow on the St. Louis metropolitan area by 9 p.m. Sunday, according to the U.S. Weather Service. Unofficial estimates of the Quad-City area snowfall were between 2 and 3 inches.

A travelers' advisory is in effect and all Quad-City area public and parochial schools were closed today.

Temperatures remained warm Sunday and the snow yielded to rain in the evening and late night hours. About 10 p.m. Sunday, however, the snow returned and continued all night, leaving the area snow covered this morning under near blizzard conditions.

The Weather Service is predicting another six to 12 inches of snow to fall today, whipped by northwest winds of 25 to 35 mph. The snow will become lighter by evening, but the high winds will continue into tonight, causing blowing and drifting, according to the forecast. It will be cold tonight with a low wind chill factor.

Roads, already slippery, could become more hazardous due to the combination of blowing snow and low temperatures tonight.

Tomorrow should be windy with more flurries. Improved weather is expected later in the week with lows of 5 to 15 degrees and highs in the 30s Wednesday and Thursday. By Friday, the high is expected to reach the 40s to lower 50s and no precipitation is anticipated in the last half of the week as March arrives.

Debate centers on Madison police manpower

WILLIAM WEIDNER
'Time to come out fighting'

By GARY SCHNEIDER and SUSAN SIGNAGO-WEICH of the Press-Record

Whether the city of Madison can adequately be protected 24 hours a day, seven days a week, by nine policemen, is a topic now being debated by many in the community.

One of those who says the city does not have enough policemen is William Weidner, a veteran of seven years on the force, who says he left the department "disgruntled" and took a better job. Weidner lays the blame for the department's lack of manpower on the Home Rule referendum issue in Madison about four years ago.

"THE FOCAL point of the downturn in the police department was with the defeat of Home Rule. The chief of police, at a police club meeting, said (Madison Mayor Mike) Sasyk threatened to lay off two (officers) and permanently freeze our wages if Home Rule did not pass. That is just what he has done. He has reduced the police department through attrition and wages have been frozen," Weidner contended.

He said the majority of the police department then was against Home Rule because it could have been used to overturn use of the Illinois Fire and Police Act in the city and to give the administration even more power over police firings and hirings.

Madison Police Chief Don Bridick said he did not remember making the statement that Weidner said he did. "I may have made a similar statement at another time though," he said.

"I THINK what Weidner is saying is out of perspective," he said. "Mayor Sasyk said that if the city didn't get more money, he may have to lay off people or freeze city salaries. But he wasn't referring to the police officers only, he was talking about all city personnel.

"The mayor thought that Home Rule would bring extra income into the city, so that there could be wage increases. But I never thought that what the mayor said could be considered a threat, it was just a statement."

Despite what Bridick said, Madison now has only nine police officers (including the chief and one detective) and four dispatchers, which is a drop of two officers since 1980. This is a drop of four policemen from the 17 people working on the Madison police force in 1974.

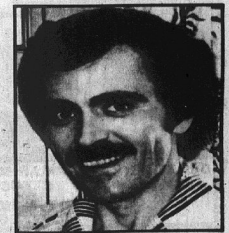

TEN NINE officers' patrol duties are divided so there is only one patrol car and officer on the street during the days, two in the evenings and two on midnights. With vacations, illness and officers being called into court, there are times when officers must work a shift, take off a shift and then work another shift, Weidner says. "There is a fatigue factor there. An officer cannot do his best or be at his safest if he is fatigued," he said.

Although Bridick agrees that sometimes officers must work these types of hours, he says he tries to avoid scheduling people this way. A scheduling chart for the month of January 1984 showed four instances of this type of scheduling.

"What people don't realize is that sometimes this type of scheduling happens because an officer needs to be off during his regular schedule," said Bridick. "So when I can, I arrange it so that they can have the time off that they need. These people

Weber jury to return

Well versed in grand jury appearances in which he is the prosecutor, Don W. Weber—experienced a role reversal last week, spending more than two hours as a defense witness while a special jury investigated him.

After two days of deliberations Feb. 21 and 22, the grand jurors will return March 6 to hear more testimony.

Special Prosecutor Paul C. Verticchio expects the jury to meet for one or two more days. A report may be issued afterward, but both the timing and outcome are undecided, Verticchio said.

STATE'S ATTORNEY for the past four years, Weber is opposed by James R. Heil in the Republican primary election March 20. Richard Allen is unopposed in the Democratic primary, and the general election will be held Nov. 6.

Future of Wilson Park pool to be debated this week

By GEORGEANN MCGEE of the Press-Record

Granite City Park District Commissioner John "Jeff" Worthen has asked board members to personally inspect the 44-year-old Wilson Park pool before attending a special meeting this week on the pool's condition.

The independent engineering report is not expected to make a splash with commissioners when they gather Tuesday afternoon.

"ONCE YOU get down in there (the empty pool), you're going to be really shocked," Worthen said.

Another commissioner, Jack Hood, suggested at the district's regular monthly session Wednesday that they try to determine if residents are interested in a new pool. Other commissioners have purposefully steered away from such plans, following the public outcry in 1978 when the board suggested a $1.2 million surf-making pool. The report Tuesday should contain an evaluation of the existing pool walls and bottom slabs, guttering, deck and filtering system. The report also will contain a rough estimate of the cost to complete the job.

UNCERTAINTY about the price of repairs has prompted commissioners to wait until a March 7 meeting before deciding how much money will be available for Stevelek garden path resurfacing. Worthen, finance committee chairman, said $96,176 has been expended on pool repairs since 1972. The pool has never been intended as a money maker for the district, rather it was operated on a break-even basis.

David Nolan, director of parks and recreation, suggested to commissioners they might want to wait until next year before completely redoing the garden paths to allow funds to be free to open the pool. The director said residents seem more concerned that flowing water be (Continued on Page 4)

Paving delayed as study begins

The Madison County Transit Board decided Thursday to delay its bus route paving plan to await a confirming opinion that it is a legal expenditure.

The ruling is being sought from Illinois Attorney General Neil Hartigan. In the meantime, a consultant will spend 90 days analyzing the paving proposal and other county transit goals.

Matt Melucci of Executive Services is to present preliminary findings by late May, with a final report 60 days after that.

THE $14,000 STUDY will seek to project short-term and long-range objectives, including revenue projections and any needed facilities.

Board Chairman William Haine said that, with more than $2 million on hand—including about $1 million from a federal aid windfall—the quarter-cent sales tax should be cut if the street improvements cannot be carried out.

Granite City Mayor Paul Schuler, a member of the transit board, proposed as an alternative that the rate remain one-fourth cent but that the tax be suspended for a time, allowing the district to use its surplus to meet operating costs.

THE BOARD modified its current contract with the Bi-State Transit System to reduce monthly payments from $150,000 to $12,000 during a period of increased federal subsidies.

It was decided to buy a 12-passenger van for the Helping Hand program at a low bid of $13,367 from Cassens & Sons and a $25,000 van from National Coach to serve the Alton, YWCA and Alton Senior Citizen handicapped. The latter bid was the higher of two received but was recommended because of the van's construction, warranty and safety features.

A $45,317, 26-passenger bus, equipped with a lift and with wheelchair space, is to be acquired for shuttle service in Edwardsville. The present shuttle bus, which also serves the Madison County Nursing Home, will be a back-up vehicle.

REPAIR OF STREETS and roads used by Bi-State buses in Madison County would be the first undertaking of its kind in the state.

Cities have said reduced municipal motor fuel tax receipts have made it difficult for them to keep up with potholes and other street deterioration. Mayor Schuler said gasoline sales are below past years due to the economic recession and vehicles' reduced fuel requirements.

Michael Thompson, attorney for the transit district, has said paving would be a proper use of the tax funds. Mayor Schuler and Robert Stille of the board praised the plan but said a state legal opinion is needed.

Ms. Suzanne Blackhurst, another board member, urged that everything possible be done to keep the paving proposal alive.

HAINES said it may be necessary to scrap the plan, which he initiated, and noted that disputes could arise over how much is spent in various cities. He said it might be possible to get by on a one-tenth or one-fifteenth cent sales tax for transit purposes.

It has been suggested that for each $4 in transit funds provided for street work, cities would spend $1. But the concept is not specifically covered in Illinois statutes.

By BILL WINTER of the Press-Record

A compilation of retirement plans shows 11 present Granite City school administrators will retire this spring, the following year or 24 years from now.

Thomas G. Noeth, data processing director, Harold E. Hillmer, employee relations administrator, and Boyd D. McCommis, custodial supervisor, are to complete their duties this June along with a nurse and 11 teachers.

Hillmer's job was combined with the personnel director's duties and McCommis' position was combined with that of the buildings and grounds director effective June 30.)

RETIRES IN 1988 will include six teachers, according to their board-approved plans.

County spending on rural law enforcement debated

By JIM WOODCOCK

A report on manpower in the Madison County sheriff's department was not intended to influence stalled contract negotiations with the county, a department official said.

County Board members received the report before a closed session in which the board approved a contract that was later rejected by the deputies.

The administration at the sheriff's department issued the reports to board members.

Li. Conrad "Pete" Baetz said the report was in response to a request from a citizens' group requesting better police protection.

"There was no play intended, but it does make the county look pretty bad," he said.

The report showed that county police protection per capita falls short of the national average and FBI recommendations.

Several board members said the report aimed to make the county look poor in its current dealings with deputies over a new contract and in past discussions over a larger budget.

The deputies' union, Operating Engineers Local 520-C, wants the county to pay deputies' increased health insurance payments.

The sheriff's department has also complained that its $3.1 million budget is not sufficient, citing 17 laid-off employees last year as an example.

The county has stressed that the department already has the largest budget in the county and cannot be given increases for insurance or any other reasons.

Baetz said the report was compiled after residents near Holiday Shores asked for additional police protection from the county. He said the group members wanted statistics showing what their taxes pay for in the way of county police protection.

"That's the only reason for the report," Baetz said. "The report was sure to cause some controversy because the figures don't make the county look too good."

"So we gave board members copies in case they have to answer their constituents on the figures. It was a courtesy on our part."

The 11-page report uses 1982 data from the FBI and Illinois Department of Law Enforcement, and information from police departments in the county.

The report showed that the sheriff's department provides 9 officers for every 1,000 of the county's rural residents. The national average is 1.5 officers per 1,000 and the FBI recommends one officer per 1,000.

The total number of law enforcement personnel, including administration and detectives, was smaller than in most Illinois counties, but larger than St. Clair County.

The report also showed the sheriff's department spends $24 per capita on police services while the average for several communities in the county was just over $38. The Granite City figure is $51. Including the jail, the county average is $37.

County Board Chairman Nelson Hagnauer said the per capita expenditure total was misleading. He said the report did not include the approximately $1 million the county gives to the sheriff's department to operate the county jail.

"I'm sure it was left out on purpose," Hagnauer said. "I think it was put down to make it look like the board isn't doing the job it's supposed to be doing, and I think we are."

Baetz said, "Many counties do not operate county jails, so jails weren't included at all in the report."

A board member said the report was not considered when the board discussed the contract proposal in closed session.

"The sheriff's department tried to use it as leverage against us but it didn't work," the board member said. "Right now, the sheriff's department in Madison County is sufficient."

As for the department's budget needs, Major Ewin Knezevich said the report's findings will probably do very little toward securing additional funds or an emergency appropriation in the future.

Knezevich thinks the department has kept the county's crime rate relatively low with a patrol that has had layoffs and is currently short on manpower.

"He said the report, especially the department's per capita figure, illustrates a need for a larger budget to increase manpower."

"But no matter how noble the need, we probably won't get a bigger budget. The county is saying it doesn't have the money."

AWARD WINNERS. Mrs. June Branding and Mrs. Margaret Lee hold plaques presented by the Madison County Arts Council, Inc. at the first annual Network Night held at the Edwardsville Holiday Inn. They were honored for distinguished service in recognition of local service dedicated to the advancement of the highest ideals of American Education. During the event the original seven members of the Board of Directors, formed in 1981, were presented plaques by Regional Superintendent Harold E. Briggs. Others honored were David Huntley, Pat Goeke, Suzanne Blackhurst and Dick Propes.

Open house at new SEMC heart care facilities is Sunday

By DEBORAH WILLIAMS
St. Elizabeth
Medical Center

Over the past decade, heart disease has risen to epidemic proportions. As part of its overall commitment to the community, St. Elizabeth Medical Center, 2100 Madison Ave., has developed a new Coronary Care Unit to aid in the battle against this life-threatening disease.

On Sunday, March 4, SEMC will hold an open house from 1 to 5 p.m. on 6-Doctors to introduce the public to this new program. The unit will contain both the Intermediate Cardiac Care Unit (ICCU) and the new Coronary Care Unit (CCU).

In the past, when patients were admitted to SEMC with a heart attack or some form of heart disease requiring intensive care, they were placed in the Intensive Care Unit. Now all patients admitted with any form of heart disease will be initially placed in the Coronary Care Unit.

Once the patients have been stabilized, they are then transferred to ICU, located on the same floor, where they are monitored closely. Upon admission to these units, patients will receive education, guidance and support through SEMC's Cardiac Rehabilitation Program. This program is based on a philosophy which promotes the concept of wellness and expands each individual's potential to help himself. Patients and their families are motivated and educated to achieve lifestyles that will improve their quality of life.

When patients are discharged, participation in the Cardiac Rehabilitation Program does not end. SEMC offers a variety of outpatient programs, including Out-patient Cardiac Rehab, the Heart-line (a 24-hour hotline), the Coronary Club, CPR classes and workshops on a variety of topics related to heart disease.

"Because of their outstanding work in the field of patient education, the SEMC Cardiac Rehabilitation Program was awarded the 1982 National Patient Education Award from the American Hospital Association," said Sister Mary Thomas, SEMC president.

"Heart disease is this nation's number one killer, and St. Elizabeth Medical Center is committed to not only providing the best possible medical care, but also to providing educational programs to the public on the prevention, the warning signs and the aftercare of this disease," she said.

Several SEMC departments, clubs and services will also be providing informational booths and demonstrations during this open house. They include CPR, the Coronary Club, Emergency Room, Cardiac Rehab, Social Work, Comprehensive Therapeutic Services, Cardiology and Dietery.

Information on home emergencies, leisure activities, the echocardiograph (SEMC's newest ultra sound scanning unit), and the Out-patient Cardiac Rehab Program also will be available.

While at the open house, visitors

THE HUMAN HEART

will be able to participate in such free activities as heart monitor tracing, physical and emotional stress tests, blood pressure tests, relaxation therapy techniques, cholesterol level tests, and one of SEMC's newest services, a computerized health risk appraisal (HRA).

HRA is a computerized survey of an individual's lifestyle that reports the 10 leading causes of death according to that particular person's age, race and sex. Not only will the program identify situations that increase one's risk of health, but it will also give steps to reduce these risk areas.

During the open house, the "Healthy, Healthy Cookbook," compiled by members of the cardiac and dietary staff, will be available for purchase.

The first 200 children touring the facility with their parents or guardians will receive T-shirts and balloons with the open house slogan,

"Life - take it to heart," printed on them.

At the end of the tour, refreshments will be served. Persons planning to attend the open house can park free in any of the SEMC parking lots.

For more information on the CCU Open House, interested persons may contact the Public Relations Department at 798-3167.

Q: Recently, I applied for a small personal loan, and my application was denied. I haven't the vaguest idea why this has happened. I have established credit, and have had for a number of years. I have never been in arrears on any of my accounts, and there are no judgments against me, nor have there ever been. I have never filed for bankruptcy. My salary is certainly high enough for the amount I requested, and I don't believe I'm overextended. What should I do to find out why this has happened?

A: You should have received notification, in writing, of the reason your application was denied. If you didn't, request it from the lending agency. You do have the right to know why you were denied the loan. If a credit report from a reporting agency is involved, you also have the right to know that agency's name and address, as well as the right to review your file. FOUR PLEAS OF INNOCENCE

John E. Thebe, 39, of 2725 Birch Ave. was freed on $402 bail at 3 p.m. Thursday after pleading innocent to assault, trespassing, property damage and disorderly conduct. He asked Circuit Judge George Moran Jr. to schedule a jury trial. It was alleged that on the previous afternoon Thebeau cursed, voiced threats and damaged a porch light at the home of Shirley Star, 2724 Birch.

Police were called to the scene and alleged Fitzhugh's speech was slurred and he appeared intoxicated.

The driver allegedly declined to take a breathalyzer test and was charged with driving under the influence of alcohol and failing to reduce speed to avoid an accident.

Fitzhugh was released after posting a $102 cash bond and his driver's license.

Finally, it is important that the person involved in an accident sign a release unless an attorney reviews the documents. A release is a legal document which cuts off all future liability of the party at fault. Once a release is signed, the negligent driver and his insurance company are not responsible for any future medical treatment for the injured driver.

In a recent case which came through this office, a person's car was struck from the rear. Her car was damaged, and, in addition, she sustained personal injuries. In attempting to represent herself before she retained an attorney, the injured driver agreed with the insurance company to settle only the property damage aspect of the case. However, when they sent the release to the injured person, the insurance company stated on the face of the document that the release was for "all claims arising from this accident."

Had the person signed this release, it could have cut off the recovery of any future damages, including those she was entitled to receive for her personal injury and property damage. This illustrates why it is important to consult an attorney before signing such a legal document.

CONTENTED KITTEN. Mrs. Helen Toundas, who has always wanted to "cuddle a tiger cub" gets the opportunity during a recent visit to Cypress Gardens in Florida. The Bengal tiger cub, a male about seven or eight weeks old and as yet unnamed, was relaxed and contented to be held, making noises similar to a cat, she said. The new baby's feet give some indication of his eventual size, however. A large male weighs between 400 and 500 pounds and is considered to be among the world's fiercest animals. With Mrs. Toundas are her husband, Mike, left, and his nephew, Andrew Koukoulis, director of wildlife at Cypress Gardens. Koukoulis, whose specialty is working with alligators and snakes, has appeared with some of his charges on the network television show, "Those Amazing Animals." Mr. and Mrs. Toundas reside at 1801 Pontoon Road.

to become the "Superstars" of the Tri-City Area.

March is National Kidney Month

The National Kidney Foundation of Eastern Missouri and Metro-East, Inc. is gearing up for its annual public education campaign in March, National Kidney Month.

During March, Kidney Foundation affiliates across the country make a special effort to bring facts and figures about the problem of kidney disease to the attention of the public.

This year, the foundation is once again encouraging individuals to consider organ donation by willing their kidneys and other vital organs when they are no longer needed after death. Kidney and other vital organ donations help those with kidney failure or other diseases when they are no longer needed after death.

Anyone of legal age can become an organ donor by signing the back of a driver's license or a Uniform Donor card, available from the Kidney Foundation, in the presence of two witnesses. A person under legal age can donate organs as long as parents or legal guardians give consent. The Kidney Foundation also advises donors to discuss their wishes with family and physician to insure cooperation and understanding.

Although the National Kidney Foundation and its affiliates have distributed more than 35 million Organ Donor Cards since 1970, the demand for all kinds of organs for transplantation continues to exceed the supply available. More than 65,000 Americans suffer from chronic renal failure and must depend on an artificial kidney machine to live. Of these, more than 14,000 patients could benefit from a transplant, if there were enough suitable donors. According to the Kidney Foundation of Eastern Missouri and Metro-East, more than 200 patients in Missouri are waiting for a transplant, but probably won't receive one because of a donor shortage.

For more information on the organ donor program or kidney disease, interested persons may call or write the Kidney Foundation, 8135 Forsyth, St. Louis, Mo. 63105, telephone 1-314-863-5558.

11 cost-cut ideas found

A "board-administrator roundtable" was held from 8 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Saturday at the Granite City High School cafeteria, with 11 ways to reduce school costs devised by the group.

Forty-five potential economies were considered by five discussion groups. Before the day was over, agreement had been reached by the entire assembly on the 11 possible approaches.

Attendance totaled 33, including six members of the Board of Education.

Those present said the participants became better acquainted with each other and took part in candid exchanges of ideas and viewpoints.

With operating debt totaling millions of dollars, the school system is trying to balance income and spending in 1983-84 and then begin to reduce the debt in 1984-85.

When a motorist allegedly swerved his vehicle and almost hit a Granite City school car at 1:55 p.m. Saturday at East 23rd Street and Ridgeway Avenue, a police sergeant followed the driver to a mobile home at 2201 Namooki Road.

Tips to follow after an accident

Law and you

By Rick Reed
Attorney at Law

When a person is involved in an automobile accident with personal injuries, certain procedures should be followed. Often individuals are confused and do certain things which may later jeopardize their interests. The purpose of this article is to outline various practices which should be followed by a person injured in such an accident.

The first step to take following an accident is to call the police to prepare a police report. One advantage to a police report is that it can serve to establish who was at fault in an accident. This may prove to be beneficial if a lawsuit should follow. The injured driver should also insist that the other driver be ticketed if he is clearly at fault in the accident or if he is intoxicated.

Another procedure which the injured party should follow is to seek medical attention as soon as possible. This can either be at an emergency room or by the family physician. This will serve to establish that the injuries were sustained in the accident and will also serve to document the exact nature of the injuries.

It also is important that the injured person sign no documents at the accident scene and make no statements to insurance companies. Illinois is a comparative negligence state, and the amount the driver will recover in this situation depends upon what percentage of fault can be attributed to him. Often insurance companies will contact the driver subsequent to an accident and ask him to make a statement. If he says the wrong things, he can inadvertently admit fault and, thereby, jeopardize future recovery.

Finally, it is important that the person involved in an accident sign no releases unless an attorney reviews the documents. A release is a legal document which cuts off all future liability of the party at fault. Once a release is signed, the negligent driver and his insurance company are not responsible for any future medical treatment for the injured driver.

In a recent case which came through this office, a person's car was struck from the rear. Her car was damaged, and, in addition, she sustained personal injuries. In attempting to represent herself before she retained an attorney, the injured driver agreed with the insurance company to settle only the property damage aspect of the case. However, when they sent the release to the injured person, the insurance company stated on the face of the document that the release was for "all claims arising from this accident."

don't mind if they have to work with only one shift off in-between.

"ALSO, SOME of the complaining work a part-time job during their off hours from the police department. If they get tired then, they don't complain about the part-time job, but they complain about the primary job. I think these officers should worry about their primary job first."

Bridick did say, however, that if an officer is not hired to replace Weidner, some changes will need to be made in the department to help the scheduling. "If a new man is hired, one of two things will happen until he is trained and ready to come to work — either the vacations will be cancelled or the detective will have to be put back into uniform," he said. "If the city chooses not to hire a new police officer, the detective will have to be put back into uniform permanently."

Weidner says officers used to be able to take vacations with their families in the summer, but now vacations have to be spread throughout the year, because of the manpower shortage.

HE ALSO contended use of the chief and detective for a backup to the patrolman on the street is not adequate, since the detective frequently is in court or out of the city on an investigation and the chief is frequently involved in luncheons, meetings and administrative functions outside of the office. Also, both the chief and the detective primarily work days.

As a result, Weidner contends, "Madison has to rely on Granite City and Venice to provide backup to our patrolmen. The taxpayers of Granite City and Venice to supply our backup," he stressed.

In addition, when there is only one patrolman on the streets, he is expected to run the race gun, in addition to answering all calls and patrolling. There is a constant push to keep the radar operating to catch speeders, he contended.

BRIDICK SAYS that, although Weidner is correct in saying that he or Detective Paul Bargiel must act as a back-up, he said he does not agree that he or Bargiel are not usually available to help. "If we had a serious call right now while I was talking to you, I would excuse myself and get up and help out the police officer," he said. "It's true that I do have a lot of administrative duties, but they are put aside if the officer on duty needs assistance."

"And as far as relying on Granite City and Venice as a back-up, we don't usually call them for assistance because if they hear something going down, they're already there," he said. "That's not because Granite City and Venice think we're short-handed, it's because it's boring on patrol sometimes, so the officers want something to do."

"The only time I ever remember calling Granite City for assistance in recent months is to help direct traffic while the fire department was fighting a fire."

WEIDNER CONTENDED "morale is very low" in the Madison Police Department for three reasons: the low pay and lack of a raise for three full years; lack of a clothing allowance which has left some officers wearing the same uniforms for two years or more, and the fact that "officers had to become political for survival" and lacked representation on the city council.

Bridick said that he would like to see the police officers get pay raises and a clothing allowance too, but he has been told by the finance committee of the city that these things are not feasible at this time. "Money has been budgeted for clothing allowance for the officers this year ($2,600), but the city administration felt we should not spend the money," he said. "This loss of clothing allowance has happened in the past, but it has not been something that has happened in consecutive years."

According to Weidner, it is the feeling of most Madison officers that only Aldermen Charles Rockett and Don Garrett are standing up for the police, Weidner said. Officers have talked to the council before about problems, "but nothing changed," he contended, "everything went back to square one."

"INFLATION HAS caused our salaries to be not enough to survive on, but now the city is seeking a new $2,500 radar gun. I tend to believe the city administration is more conscientious about the intake of traffic fine money than in paying the officers," Weidner said.

He said that, at one time, the Madison police department was one of the best paid departments in all of the Madison County. "We were paid more than you'll have to decide for yourself," he said. Weidner contends that officers who have been there 10 years are now making less than $18,000 a year.

Weidner also contends that Mayor Sasyk is always "harping" about traffic arrests and is attempting to get rid of the "blue flu" days for police officers. "It is clear to me that if the crime rate is down 13 percent last year, we (the police) apparently must be doing something. To justify 'goals and standards' for more traffic arrests, officers would have to start pinching people for burned out tail lights and failure to use a turn signal and that sort of little thing to meet a quota."

"I THINK THE fact we had a 12 percent increase in traffic accidents in the city last year shows that speeding, which causes many accidents, is not a serious problem," he said.

Weidner said he objects to the city's alarm department, which has only three employees, having a budget almost as large as the police department's budget when policemen have not received a raise. Police, after all, have to answer all the alarms, of which there were 1,728 last year, including 830 false alarms. If the alarm system expands, as the city administration hopes it will, "who is going to answer all these alarms?" Weidner asked.

"It amazes me the aldermen are able to appropriate this money for the alarm and cable system, but there is no money for clothing, wages or police cars. Yet, they found $2,500 for a new radar gun," he said.

BRIDICK AGREES that the police department does answer a lot of alarms, but he says this is just part of the job. "All of the things the policemen do are not necessarily exciting, but they are his job," he said. "If a policeman gets a call on an alarm going off, he has to answer it."

"As far as the budget of the alarm department, their allotment reflects a lot of capital expenditures that are needed to get things started over there. Once they get the things they need, the department's budget should be cut down."

The police cars, Weidner contends, should be replaced, but there is no money in the budget to replace them. One car has traveled 60,000 miles and others have about 30,000 miles on them, not indicating the large amount of time the engines are left running while the cars are parked.

BRIDICK SAYS that there is money in the budget for new police cars, but this money is not being used for the same reason that the clothing allowance money is not being spent. "The finance committee says we can't afford a new car," he says.

Bridick says the exact mileage on the police cars is 58,000 miles on the 1982 Dodge and 25,000 and 25,000 on the two 1983 Dodges. "I wouldn't say that we necessarily need a new car this year, but in the past, the city has purchased either one car or two cars, rotating the number bought each year," he said.

Bridick did agree that there is no comparison between 58,000 miles on a police car and 58,000 miles on a regular car, since policemen do a lot of "bumping" their vehicles.

WEIDNER CONTENDS that setting standards for police officers will further ruin morale in the department. Officers will have to struggle to meet the standards and, "when they do, the standards will be raised," he predicted. "You never catch up. It reduces the effectiveness of the police department," he said.

Unequal treatment of some officers also was cited by Weidner as hurting the morale in the department.

Some officers have accidents in patrol cars and "are called on the carpet and fined or reprimanded," but others have accidents and nothing is said, he claimed.

SOME OFFICERS were paid for the "blue flu" days when they came to work, but others, even some with doctor's slips, have yet to be paid. Three officers are suing the city for that pay, he says. "We are supposed to have 18 paid sick days a year, but we can't use them and take a chance of not being paid, even if we do turn in a doctor's excuse. It used to be we had to be out three days before we had to have an excuse. They say they changed that to one day due to the abuse by the Manpower employees. City employees, however, have been the ones to pay," Weidner contended.

Bridick says that despite the "blue flu" days, city employees treat all of his men fairly. "As far as the incident that Weidner is talking about with the blue flu, the city's attorneys have never contacted the city on it," he said.

"Two men who call in sick during the blue flu on July 26 did not get paid," he said. "The two men were sick on the 26th, worked on the 27th and 28th and then turned in their doctor's slips on the 29th. When I called one of the officer's doctors to check out the validity of the slip, the doctor said he had not come into the office."

BRIDICK SAID he usually does not check out an employee's excuse, but he felt in this case, it was warranted.

In another sick pay dispute that occurred in November, Bridick said that an employee was scheduled to be off Nov. 19, 21 and 22, having to work only on the 20th. "He called in sick on the 20th, so what would you think if someone did that to you?" he asked. "This guy did not bring in his doctor's slip until Dec. 7, and when I checked this one out, the doctor said he did not even know the man."

"Enforcing the sick pay policy is up to the individual department head. If I think someone is abusing his sick pay, I will check it out. If someone needs to have a day off to take a long weekend, all they have to do is ask me, and I will try to arrange it."

SOME OFFICERS' insurance benefits have been terminated when it was found out that their wives worked and had family insurance plans.

Bridick said this is true. "The city felt that it was unnecessary to give double coverage to families of police officers," he said. "Why should we? If the policemen and their families are already covered, there is no need to pay for insurance twice." He said this dropping of insurance only refers to hospitalization coverage.

According to Weidner, the chief of police operates rental property and does not want to be an owner of anyone else while he is an officer, but he has tried to stop everyone else from having second employment. "We hired an attorney and before it (the order for a court injunction, the order was rescinded. Instead, he (Chief Bridick) put us on rotating shifts, which makes it extra hard to work."

WEIDNER SAYS he does not blame Bridick for all of the problems. "I think Donny is doing a good job, but Mike (Sasyk) has his finger over him constantly. What Mike wants, Mike gets. He says no pay raises, we get no pay raises. He says no iron band. We know when new policies are posted on the bulletin board, those are not Donny's policies, they're Mike's," he contended.

Bridick agrees that Mayor Sasyk has some control over him. "But any police administrator is governed by the mayor and city council, because that is who gave you your job," he said. "And I think that workers should show some loyalty to their employer."

Weidner says he knows this article will make him appear a "troublemaker" in the eyes of the city administration, but he alleged the administration "has shoved us up against a wall. It's time to come out fighting."

Transfer man with knife, gun wounds

Edward Tomlin, 33, of 3008 E. 23rd St. was transferred by ambulance Thursday from St. Elizabeth Medical Center to the John Cochran Veterans Administration Hospital in St. Louis.

He received knife and gunshot wounds on the morning of Friday, Feb. 17, in the vicinity of his apartment.

Police went to the scene at 9:26 a.m. in response to a report that he was "kicking in doors" of other apartments. Additional officers were dispatched to assist those initially assigned.

At 9:30 a.m., city ambulance and fire vehicles were sent, to remain there on a standby basis along with health authorities. At 11:11 a.m., paramedics were utilized.

Circumstances vary in the recollections of those who were present, including neighbors. All say that the knife injuries were self-inflicted and that the shooting was by police, who told of attempting to protect bystanders from being harmed or taken hostage.

Man hit with flower vase

A birthday celebration which went awry resulted in a fight between two men, one who has been hospitalized.

Pontoon Beach Police responded to a disturbance call in the early morning hours last week at 10 Nelson Drive, and Sergeant Harold Denham found that James Matyas of that address had gotten into an argument with another man who grabbed a glass flower vase and struck Matyas' face and throat, severely cutting his throat.

He was taken to St. Elizabeth Medical by Campbell Ambulance.

The other man was taken into custody and transferred to Madison County Jail at Edwardsville where charges of aggravated battery were sought, but were refused when Matyas said he did not wish to prosecute.

FINED FOR RAIL TRESPASS

Walter D. Sweet, 21, Caruthersville, Mo., was fined $32 last week for trespassing. He and a Granite City boy, 16, were found drinking inside a Norfolk & Western gondola car on railroad property near Missouri Avenue.

Deadline Thursday for seniors to defer their property taxes

Illinois House of Representatives Speaker Michael J. Madigan is reminding senior citizens that the deadline for applications for the senior Citizen Real Estate Property Tax Deferral Program is Thursday, March 1.

"The General Assembly successfully overrode the governor's veto of the Property Tax Deferral Legislation during the fall veto session and it became a state law on Nov. 10 of last year," said Madigan.

The program allows homeowners, 65 or older earning less than $10,000 annually to postpone all or part of their property taxes, but not more than 80 percent of the taxpayers' equity interest in the property. "This deferral can continue until the property is sold or the taxpayer dies," said Madigan. "The taxes and interest would then be paid from the taxpayer's estate."

The following are steps to take regarding this program, he said.

—Visit the county treasurer's office to pick up an application. The office is in the Madison County Courthouse in Edwardsville.

—The application must be returned to the county treasurer by March 1.

—The treasurer's office will review the application and grant the deferral to those meeting the requirements. This should be done by March 15. You will be notified by mail.

—When property tax bills are mailed, those qualifying bills will be pulled and sent to the Illinois Department of Revenue with a copy of the agreement.

—The Department of Revenue will reimburse the county treasurer for the dollar amount deferred.

—The county treasurer will then file a lien with the recorder of deeds on the property. This lien will be for the dollar amount deferred.

—Additional questions regarding this program can be answered at the county treasurer's office.

Madigan also reminds senior citizens that as of Jan. 1, 1984, the Senior Citizen Homestead Exemption increased from $1,500 to $2,000.

"This long overdue $500 increase was necessary due to the continued rise in property taxes," said Madigan. The exemption applies to single family residents and residential owners of cooperative apartments who are responsible for paying the property taxes, according to Madigan. Forms and additional information are available at the county assessor's office and many township assessor's offices.

State Police superintendent is made honorary Post 10-4 member Illinois State Police Superintendent Laimutis A. Nargelenas was made an honorary member of Explorer Post 10-4 at the group's annual family night dinner in Madison last week.

Supt. Laimutis was chosen by the officers of the Explorer Post for his assistance the past several years with the program of the local Explorers, plus his work nationally on behalf of Law Enforcement Explorers.

During the group's 15 years, only a handful of persons has been so honored. They include the late G. Rollin Henn, Ed Ray Dubish, U.S. Congressman Melvin Price and H. Stuart Knight, former director of the U.S. Secret Service.

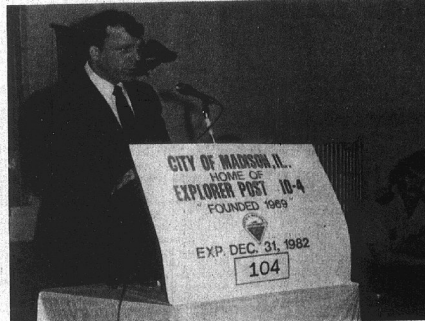

Awarded Explorer "E" plaques were John Belicoff, a charter committee member of the post since October 1969, and now an associate advisor for finance. Belicoff, vice president of First National Bank in Madison, helps the Quad-City area youth group raise funds for special projects.

Bud and Holly Clay, owners and operators of three area Farm Fresh Stores, were honored for their help in providing employment for many 10-4 members during the past several years.

Thomas George a co-owner with Ronald Gryzwacz of G & G Car Wash, also accepted the "E." The G & G Car Wash owners have supported the post for numerous years by making their facilities available for money-earning projects and also hiring post members for the past several years.

The event was opened with grace by the Rev. Harold Wilson, who also is a Madison County deputy sheriff and president of the Madison Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP).

reputation of the youth group, who's members come from the entire Quad-City area, long before he became directly associated with it.

Supt. Nargelenas noted in his opening comments that, not only the people of Madison, but the entire area should be proud of Post 10-4 and its founder W.F. "Mick" Strange of Madison, as they have earned a national reputation for excellence. He paid particular note of the work the post founder has done to benefit the Explorer program locally and nationally.

District Boy Scout Executive Conrad Fetsch of the Cahokia Mound Scout Council presented the post of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP).

treasurer of the sponsoring body. Fetsch noted that a soon to be released national reference book on Law Enforcement Exploring will contain many items developed by the local Explorer Post.

The post has been in existence since October 1969 and has been featured nationally in three police-related magazines and twice in the National Exploring magazine. John Hartman, president of 10-4, acted as master-of-ceremonies, assisted by Ken Patterson and Dan Fleig of Venice, first and second vice presidents, respectively, Michael Chatman of Madison, secretary, Mark Foley, treasurer, and Vince Dohal of Madison, senior squad leader.

Special recognition was given John R. Hooks, the first president of the post.

It was noted that a by-product of the post, "Friends for Scouting," a non-profit Illinois Corporation, has been organized to assist the all three phases of the Boy Scout program — Cub Scouting, Boy Scouting and Exploring.

Past post presidents in attendance, in addition to Hooks, were Terry Toth, Michael Bilbrey, Jason Kieffer, William Weidner and Thomas Hooks, a charter member. Also attending were 172 parents, committee members and families.

Special guests included Deputy ISP Superintendent William Pierce, District 11 ISP Commander Bobby Henry and Troopers David Jung and Michael Terrell, both of District 11.

COPE endorses Mondale, Simon

At the February United Steelworkers of America Local 67 meeting the 1984 committee on Political Education (COPE) Committee was elected. Members of the committee are Bill Rains, Dave Gray, Ben Glasgow, Freda Scott, Jerry Urbeck, Dave Dowling and Connie Armes, with Ed Boyer as chairman.

The committee met to discuss plans for the election year and voted unanimously to endorse Walter Mondale and Paul Simon. Plans also were made to assist in naming a phone bank now in operation at the Granite City Labor Temple.

Also, plans are being made to begin a massive voter registration drive for the general election. After July 1, members will be able to register at the Local 67 Union Hall when some of the local officers will become registrars.

Madison, Venice Lovejoy In Dupo Class A basketball regionals get underway

By CHARLIE SKAER
of the Press-Record

DUPO — The Class A Dupo Basketball Regional begins tonight with the Madison Trojans carrying their annual nickname.

Madison is "the underdog." Although Madison coach Larry Graham realizes six other teams will have fans rooting for the underdogs, Graham doesn't seem to mind being ranked as the favorite.

"I'd rather be rated number one than to be the underdog," said Graham. "It shows that we did something worthwhile during the season."

THE TROJANS, who finished the regular season at 23-2, did indeed do something worthwhile. Madison is ranked second in the state by the Associated Press, behind under-doged McLeansboro. The team, which started the season with a low 1-2 record, now carries a 22-game winning streak.

But Graham will have to extend his team's winning streak by a more victory if his Trojans want to duplicate their 1981 state championship.

In the Dupo regional, six teams will be looking to knock off Madison. Ranked second in the regional is Venice, followed by Assumption, which is ranked third and Lovejoy in the fourth position. Dupo, Valmeyer and Columbia also will be looking for a shot at the Trojans.

ACTION GETS underway tonight at 7:30, with Lovejoy taking on Dupo. Tonight's winner will play Madison on Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. Madison received a bye in the opening round. Lovejoy coach Ted Daniels isn't planning his strategy on how to upset Madison. Instead, he's still worried about Dupo, which has a 5-16 record.

"On paper, we're supposed to beat Dupo. But the game is played on the court," said Daniels, whose team is 7-13. "We can be folding it up for the season."

To make the game more interesting, Dupo is coached by Daniels' former assistant — Bob Mason. When Daniels coached the varsity basketball team at Assumption in 1982, Mason was the sophomore coach.

"That'll add a little spice to the game," said Daniels. "I scored different than what we did at Assumption."

IF LOVEJOY does come out victorious, they'll be given first crack at beating Madison. Surprisingly enough, Daniels spoke with more optimism about the prospects.

"I'm one of the few coaches in the area to beat a team coached by Graham," said Daniels. "I did it when I was with Assumption and I beat him last year with Lovejoy."

But does a lowly 7-13 team have a realistic chance against Madison? "They're not unbeatable," said Daniels. "He (Graham) knows we're capable of winning."

IN THE tournament's lower bracket, Venice will be taking on Valmeyer at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday and Assumption will be battling Columbia at 8 p.m. Tuesday.

Venue coach Clinton Harris also takes the "one-game-at-a-time" attitude like Daniels, stressing the importance of avoiding over-optimistic predictions.

"We take each game as they come," Harris said. "The first loss you have, you're out."

THE VENICE team, which stands at 17-6, won't have any surprises waiting to be revealed at the regionals, said Harris. Instead, the team will be stressing the basic plays they've had all year long.

"We have three different kinds of defenses and a lot of offenses," said Harris. "As the games progress, we decide what we do. The boys have to be prepared to switch to whatever I tell them to."

Harris said his team's main weakness is their lack of rebounds.

"We have to work on the boards," said Harris. "We don't have the height, so we have to box out more often. But once we get the ball, we can move."

THE RED Devils, if they defeat Valmeyer, will likely be facing Assumption in the semifinals Thursday night at 7:30. Venice came up the winner during their first contest this year, a 74-66 victory Jan. 13.

The championship game is set for 7:30 p.m. Friday.

And although Madison will likely be in the championship, Graham isn't making any predictions.

"We'll likely be playing Lovejoy (in the semifinals) and they're dangerous," he said. "It's a rivalry game. And anything can happen in a rivalry game."

In Campaign For Warriors, Journey's a learning experience

Cotter, Sparks Exit Competition Early

By ALAN L. GERSTENECKER
Sports Editor
of the Press-Record

CHAMPAIGN — The Illinois High School Association calls the playing field and arena "a learning experience of the classroom." Granite City High School's two representatives in the 47th Annual Illinois State Wrestling Tournament during the weekend are taking the IHSA literally.

Jeff Cotter and Tom Sparks, the Warriors' two representatives, were not champions at the tournament. In fact, between the two of them they only won one match. But from their experience at the meet, they've learned and brought something home which will benefit them and the Warrior wrestling team for at least two more years — the competitiveness of a state meet.

COTTER, a 98-pound junior, defeated Jeff Meagher, a freshman of New Lenox (Providence) 10-3 in Thursday's preliminary round before losing to Galesburg's John Chapman 5-2 in the first round. Cotter was denied a third match, in the consolation, when Chapman lost to Jeff Shapiro of Elk Grove Village High. Shapiro, incidentally, went on to finish second in the 98-pound division, behind Mike Urwin, a 34-1 sophomore from Burbank (St. Laurence).

"I think a lot of my problem in nervousness," Cotter began. "For some reason, I don't wrestle well in tournaments. But, coming here — seeing and competing in the state tournament — may help me get over that. I'll be back next year."

INDEED, Cotter has been less effective in tournament action. In fact, the gutsy little grappler did not lose in a dual meet all season. The five losses he sustained in his 39 matches this season all resulted in tournament play — two in the Granite City Holiday Tournament, one in the regional, one in the sectional and his fifth in the state tournament.

"This was a very good year for me. Good except for the tournaments," he said quietly, in his statement. "And even this, the state tournament, was a good experience. Now I know what to expect."

Looking back over his match with Chapman, Cotter said he wouldn't have done anything differently, saying he thought he was the more aggressive, despite the final outcome.

"Evidently, he (Chapman) watched my previous match. He seemed to anticipate my moves, particularly my pop out. I didn't think I was very good," Cotter concluded.

IN HIS first-round match with Chapman, Cotter fell behind late in the first period. Chapman scored a takedown which led to another two points by virtue of a near fall.

Trailing 4-0, Cotter managed to reverse Chapman in the waning moments of the first period to narrow the point spread, 4-2.

After a scoreless second period, Cotter was penalized in the third period for stalling. The stalling penalty was demoralizing for the Warrior grappler because up until that point he thought he was in control of the match.

The penalty virtually closed the door on Cotter's hopes of a comeback behind victory. Chapman rode to victory.

SPARKS was less fortunate than Cotter in the preliminary round. A third-place finisher in both the Edwardsville Regional and Granite City High Sectional, Sparks dropped a preliminary round match to Lee Eppson, a senior from Waukegan (West High) and a second-place finisher in the Barrington Sectional.

In the first period of the Sparks-Eppson match, Eppson took a takedown, scoring two take-downs and one two-minutes, but his takedown attempt, which usually works nine of 10 times, backfired on him," Schmitt said of Cotter's pop out move.

SPARKS began to lose that way up here, but he's not the only one to go that route. The competition up here is so intense that you can't afford bad breaks.

"One false move or one bad call against you and you're dead in a tournament like this one. But the experience will do them a world of good."

Assessing his team for the coming year, Schmitt has been around too long to expect too much nearly a full year in advance. But if there is

'One false move or one bad call against you and you're dead in a tournament like this one. But the experience will do them a world of good.'

Bill Schmitt
Warrior wrestling coach

point near fall. On the defensive, Sparks' only scoring of the period was an escape.

Trailing 6-1 after the first period, things were not much easier for Sparks in the second period. Eppson padded his lead with two more second-period points to take an 8-1 lead going into the third period.

STARTING in the down position, Sparks managed to escape to pick up his second point, 8-1, but Eppson managed to work two more take-downs and a two-point near fall in the third period to win 14-2.

"He's just a stronger wrestler than I am," Sparks said of Eppson after the match. "I think I had a chance to win because once up here everyone has the same chance. He was just better than I was today."

Admittedly, Sparks said he was overwhelmed by the grandeur of the state tournament and although he lost he, like Cotter, expects better things in the future.

"This is my first time to the state tournament. It's great. It's one big tournament," Sparks said.

"Sure I'm disappointed that I didn't win, but I've got two more years and Jeff's got another year to earn a trip up here. Considering that, I think we've both done well just getting here," Sparks said.

"I'm happy to have learned what I have here and to have gotten as far as I did."

WARNER Coach Bill Schmitt echoed those sentiments.

"This has been a great experience for both of Jeff and Tom, particularly Tom, who's a sophomore," Schmitt said. "Unless you're in one of the lighter weight classes, sophomores are few and far between. So it was good exposure for him."

"As for Jeff," Schmitt continued, "he got a victory under his belt in state competition. He lost a tough one in his second match. He out-wrestled the kid for five of the six reason for optimism, it's in his returning squad."

IN ALL, Schmitt expects 10 of his 12 starters this year to return next year, barring any unforeseen problems, he said.

"On paper it appears we should be pretty strong next year. We're only losing 155-pound Mark Dowdy and 119-pound Greg Nemeth. I've learned never to count your chickens before they're hatched, but hopefully we should have 10 people back."

"I think it's better to be pessimistic than optimistic. If things don't pan out then you expected it. If they do then you're pleasantly surprised," Schmitt said.

"Things didn't pan out for the most of the wrestlers who competed in the Granite City High School Sectional."

IN ADDITION to early losses to Sparks and Cotter, the rest of the area's grapplers did little better. Eric Roberson, Roxana's 98-pounder who also qualified for the state tournament, dropped a first-round bout to Bob Carrigan of Carpentersville, losing 15-10. Eric Walker of Carbondale, the other GCHS sectional qualifier at 98 pounds, like Cotter, also lost his first-round bout.

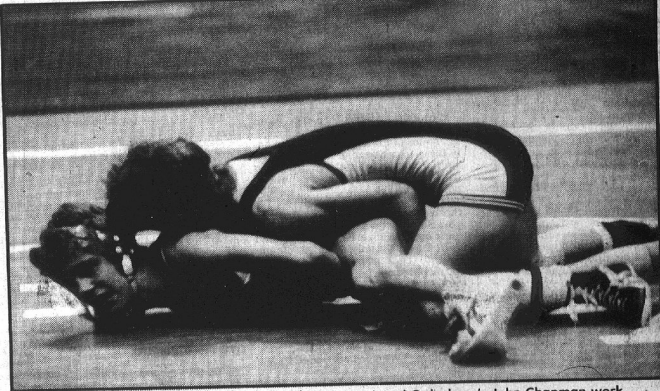

At 105 pounds, representatives from the GCHS Sectional fared somewhat better. Bryan Patterson of Cahokia made it to the championship quarterfinal round before losing to Tinsley Park's Brian Edelen.

Edelen went on to finish third while Patterson was a sixth-place finisher.

BUT THAT wasn't the best news at 105 pounds. Althoff's Joe Williams, a first-place finisher in the GCHS Sectional, finished second at 105 pounds, losing to Pete Rhode of Freeport in the championship bout. It was the second time in as many years that Williams has finished second in the state tournament. Last year, he finished second at 96 pounds to Jesse Glover of Proviso East.

At 112 pounds, Carbondale's Scott Grammer and East St. Louis' Sylvester Donahy each lost preliminary round matches. Grammer was second at GCHS' Sectional while Donahy was third.

Cahokia's Kevin Byrd, the GCHS sectional champion at 112 pounds, lost a first-round match to Homewood-Flossmoor's Tony Calderone.

MIXING IT UP. Granite City's Jeff Cotter (on top) and Galesburg's John Chapman work on each other during their first-round bout in 98-pound competition of the Class AA State Wrestling Tournament in Champaign Thursday. Chapman went on to defeat Cotter 5-2 thus eliminating him from the championship bracket.

Calderone later finished sixth overall.

THE REMAINDER of the GCHS sectional state qualifiers did not do much better, most losing first or quarterfinal rounds. But the real surprise came at 126 pounds.

Clyde Memorial's (Bethalto) Kip Kristoff, a two-time state champion, was perhaps the most favored athlete at the Granite City High Sectional to win a championship.

In Class AA

Palos Hills wins first mat team title

CHAMPAIGN — The Palos Hills (Stagg) Chargers made history Saturday night in the University of Illinois Assembly Hall with a stunning 30-20 victory over the Carol Stream (Glenbard North) Panthers to win the Class AA Team Wrestling Championship. With the victory, the Chargers became the first team to win the Illinois State Dual Team Championship.

Meanwhile, the Mahomet-Seymour Bulldogs captured the Class A team title with a 26-22 victory over the St. Clair Merit.

The Class AA pairing appeared to be a blowout in the early going as Palos Hills jumped to a 16-2 lead through 126-pound competition. But, "I don't think it was as much as losing his singlet as it was the confusion on not being able to find it which contributed to his loss. That and his injury," Wintjen said.

FOLLOWING an injury to his left side in a practice session last Tuesday, doctors were not going to let Kristoff wrestle in the state tournament. Kristoff, suffering from a muscular pull to his left side, was only approved for wrestling late last week prior to the state tournament, Wintjen said.

"Only after two days of whirlpools and ice packs did the doctor approve Kristoff for wrestling. And only then, when the doctors thought the damage was limited to soft tissue, did he let him participate."

Kristoff was the hope of the Granite City High School Sectional's best hope for a state champion. But as Schmitt later pointed out, the high concentration of fine wrestling programs to the northern part of the state makes winning elsewhere difficult.

"THE INTENSITY of wrestling championships is in the north because that's where the numbers are, where the greatest percentage of wrestlers are," Schmitt said.

"Consequently, their level of competition is much higher than in the south and they get the stiffer competition. Competition which is necessary to be the best in the state."

"I've always said that our guys, because of this, are always a move behind. I'm talking about our good kids against the good kids up here. It can go through the years and pick the kids from Granite City, Belleville, Edwardsville and where ever and they'll generally lose to the north kids by one point, two points, but always by one move."

"It may be a reversal, a takedown or even a near fall which makes the difference, but it's always one move. Just one move away," Schmitt said.

Schmitt concluded by saying that much of winning a state title is luck. The good athletes, Schmitt said, will get to the state tournament. Skill, endurance, luck and particularly the luck of the draw can greatly improve one's chances for a state title.

In Gateway East Action Ailing Warrior cagers fall to Tigers, 73-49

By PAULA WISE
of the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — Three weeks ago an unwelcome visitor joined the Granite City Warrior basketball team. Since then the Warriors have dropped their last four games in a row, including a 73-49 loss Friday night to Gateway East Conference rival Edwardsville.

That visitor, the flu bug, which has pestered so many high school students throughout the area for the last month, has sidelined several key Warrior players.

Warrior Coach Don Deterding feels this problem has greatly affected his team's performance.

"We are so physically weak right now we can't play," stated Deterding. "Gray and Hylla were out two days this week and Cant had it last week. It just takes so long to come back from whatever this is."

"I thought we'd have trouble tonight. The kids think they're ready to play, but you can tell by their color that their not," Deterding added.

Things looked bad for the Warriors from the beginning. Friday as they managed only six points in the first quarter. The only bright spot for the Warriors was their defense which allowed Edwardsville just 11 points.

"You can play defense when your weak," said Deterding about his team's performance. "But you have to be strong to shoot. Everything we missed was short. We had eight air balls in the first half."

THE WARRIORS' problems continued in the second quarter. Although the Tigers were turning the ball over the Warriors were unable to capitalize. A poor performance by both teams led to a 24-15 half-time score.

"They had 15 turnovers in the first half and still had a nine point lead. We just couldn't capitalize," said Coach Deterding.

The Warrior's shooting improved in the third quarter. Jeff Gray, who Coach Deterding described as forcing his shots in the first half, began to score for the Warriors. Gray added eight of his 14 points in the third quarter to keep his team within striking distance 44-31.

DEFENDING described his team's weakness as not looking inside for the shot.

"We have to become more inside oriented. We don't look inside. You win from the five- and 10-foot area. Unless we learn to do that we aren't going to win this year or next year," said Deterding.

In the fourth quarter the Tigers poured it on. Less than two and one half minutes into the quarter Edwardsville had already increased its lead to 19 points. From there it was all downhill for the Warriors.

THE FAST break proved to be the straw that broke the camel's back for the Warriors in the fourth quarter. Two quick guards, Todd Spiller and Kelly Dumas, did most of the damage as the Tigers continued to increase their lead.

"They ran when our tongues were hanging out," said Deterding of the Tigers' fourth quarter play. "The momentum just went their way. That's what happens. You just have to live with it."

One bright spot Deterding mentioned was the fact that the Warriors will get another chance at the Tigers' Granite City, which had defeated Edwardsville 64-45 for their first victory of the season, are seeded second and will face the third seeded Tigers in the first round.

"ONE GOOD thing is that it's hard to beat a team three times. If we had lost I'm glad we lost now," said Deterding after his team's loss.

"Hopefully we'll be better fit by the regional," Deterding added. "But that's farther down the road."

Stars whip McKendree juniors

By AL BARNES
of the Press-Record

LEBANON, ILL. — In a strangely near silent gym at Lebanon's McKendree College, Saturday afternoon, the Stars of Granite City Center finished out their 1983-84 basketball campaign with a 106-93 victory over the bearcats' Junior varsity squad.

Time and time again the McKendree cagers made runs at the high-scoring Stars, but Coach Larry Graham's ace, Pat (the Mad) Hatter, simply wouldn't accept defeat as he scored key baskets in his game high 42 points. It was the former Madison High prep cage star's fourth 40-plus game of the Stars' inaugural season.

It looked like another easy blow-out for the stars enroute to a 19-8 season as they spurted out to a 46-36 first half lead. But, the junior Cats' tiny guard, Willie Kidd, former BASKETBALL BALLET. Warriors Kurt Hylla (23) and Scott Cant wrestle for a second quarter rebound with Edwardsville's Tim Brinkman and Mike Going in Friday's contest. The Warriors were defeated 73-49 by the Tigers to drop their record to 9-15.

Lovejoy ace, put on a sensational last half scoring spurge with 17 points. He was aided considerably by freshman Ken Coplen from Belleville West, with 26 points. Two other first-year players for McKendree matched Kidd's 17-point totals for the game.

However, as mentioned, every time the Cats pulled close, the Stars' Mister Clutch, Hatter, would break their hearts with a series of brilliant baskets or do-or-die free throws. He made seven-of-seven crucial charity tosses. In fact, the game was almost decided at the free-throw line: The Stars made 24-of-29 and the Cats came through on 18 of 24 tries.

Three Granite City "players" were in double figures: Hatter, of course, with his 42 points, and Carvell Claggett made 18 and Marc Parker of Collinsville took runner-up scoring honors with 20.

The second half was a real, deadly duel, with the Stars managing to outscore McKendree by three points, 60-57. As the Bears drew close at 94-90 with just two minutes and ten seconds remaining on the clock, Hatter went to work. From nowhere, the slender Hatter stole a pair of McKendree passes and drove in for a crushing slam-dunk. Granite City's Rich Rudy put the game away with a pair of free throws to complete the scoring.

Against Teutopolis Trojans stomp Wooden Shoes, 77-60

By CHARLIE SKAER
of the Press-Record

MADISON — Larry Graham congratulated his Madison team after their final win of the regular season, a 77-60 victory Tuesday over the Teutopolis Wooden Shoes. He also gave them a challenge.

"That was it for the first season," said Graham. "Now the second season begins."

Graham was talking about the state playoffs, which begin tonight at Dupu. The Trojans enter the tournament at 23-2, with a 22-game winning streak.

"We've had some awfully good club clubs at this school," said Graham to his team in the locker room after defeating Teutopolis.

"So what do you guys have to do to be remembered? You've got to win. And you do that by taking it one game at a time," Graham said to his team spurring it on.

IF FRIDAY night's action is any indication of post-season play, Madison fans may be in for a thriller. Teutopolis, which finished the season at 19-6, kept the game closer than the 17-point difference indicates.

Madison Trojans

Wooden Shoes coach Ken Crawford explained it best.

"To lose to Madison by 17, you only have to make nine mistakes," he said. "You know that they're going to turn those nine mistakes into 18 points."

Despite the solid game played by the Wooden Shoes, Madison took the game out of reach by capitalizing on their opponent's errors in the second half. Down by only three points going into the third quarter, Teutopolis hit a cold streak — making only five of 18 shots.

MADISON, meanwhile, made 10 of 16 shots. With several fast breaks, the Trojans made the 11-point lead look easy.

"Our team scores in spurts," said Graham. "We used our speed to win this game."

The Trojans also used teamwork. Michael Young scored 22 points and was followed by three teammates who scored 12 points each — Victor Valentine, Reggie Banks and Anthony Williams.

Madison assistant coach David Hodges said the game was one of the best team performances he'd seen all year.

"We played good, solid team ball," said Hodges. "If we don't, we're just an ordinary team. A VERY ordinary team."

The first quarter proved how ordinary the Trojans could be. Teutopolis' Ken Hemmen took the game's first basket. The 6-foot-2 senior, also scored the basket that put the Wooden Shoes ahead 11-6 with 2:35 left in the first quarter.

GRHAM instructed one of his players to call timeout. He was shaking his head in disgust while his players ran to the huddle.

The five-point lead turned out to be the biggest of the game for Teutopolis. Madison scored four straight times to tie the score at 14-14 at the end of the quarter.

Graham made several substitutions the second quarter, rotating players to give everyone a chance to play. He needed to see which players could perform best in a close ballgame.

"We've got 15 guys and are going to have to drop a few to get to a 12-man roster for the playoffs," said Graham, adding that it would be a tough decision. "We've got a well-rounded team."

Graham should be grateful. Some coaches would love to have such problems.

Cougars win crown

BALTIMORE — The wrestling team at Southern Illinois University-Edwardsville won their first NCAA Division II wrestling championship, Saturday.

The Cougars had finished in the top six in each of the last 10 Division II nationals before outdistancing five-time defending champion California State-Bakersfield. The Cougars ran up 141½ points to 93 for Cal State.

Larry Kristoff, who has guided the Cougars for 15 seasons, was voted Division II Coach of the Year by his peers.

Four Cougars captured individual titles. Don Stevens of Tinley Park, Ill., repeated as 126-pound champion; Tim Wright of Rock Island, Ill., won at 118; Booker Benford of Providence, R.I., captured the 177-pound title, and Ernie Badger of Mt. Vernon, Ill., was the winner at 190.

The Cougars entered eight wrestlers, all of whom reached the final four in their weight classes. Any wrestler gaining the final eight automatically earns All-America honors.

Monday SPORTS*Against Tigers*Trojanettes end home season with a winBy PAULA WISE
of the Press-Record

MADISON — The Madison Trojanettes' basketball team, playing its last home game of the season, finished in style last Thursday night by defeating the Edwardsville Tigers 51-33. The win increased Madison's record to 17-2.

It was an unfamiliar Trojanette team that took the floor in the first quarter. The only regular starter that Coach Carol Cole had in the lineup was Regina Banks. The rest of the starters included Robyn Harris, Kim Goes, Angela Riley, and Abigail Heard.

COACH COLE said the reason for this drastic change was to allow the other girls, who had worked so hard during the season, to get a chance to start. She also felt it gave her a chance to evaluate these players' performances at different positions.

"From now on there are no set five. There is going to be constant competition for every game. The girls are going to have to earn their starting positions. This gives all the girls more incentive to try," Coach Cole stated.

"I'm really feeling good about our team right now. I think the kids feel good about themselves too. They are starting to really hustle in games and practice."

Coach Cole said she feels her team's drastic turn around stems from last week's disciplinary actions taken against two players for missing practice.

"I found out a lot of things about this team in the last week. One thing I found out was that Riley can play forward. I had been working her at center, but last week when I needed her at forward I moved her out and she did a good job," Cole said.

"FROM NOW ON I won't hesitate to take whom ever is starting out to give them a rest because we have a lot of talented girls. I know I can put someone in who will take up the slack."

Two other players Coach Cole mentioned as key players for the Trojanettes are Kim Goes and Abigail Heard. The two combined in the Edwardsville game for 14 of Madison's points, 10 coming in the first half. At halftime the Trojanettes lead 27-12.

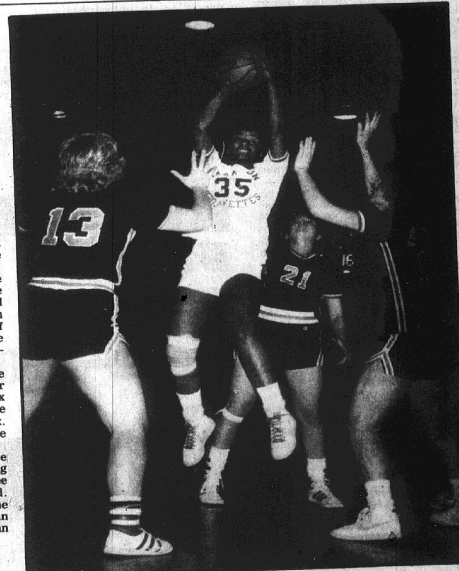

Madison's notorious defense rose to the occasion in the third quarter allowing Edwardsville just six points. All of those points were scored by Tiger forward Cindy Cox. Four of Cox's points came off free throws.

The Edwardsville offense came alive in the fourth quarter, scoring 15 points to almost equal their three previous quarters combined. However it was too late for the Tigers. The Trojanettes again outscored their opponents to take an 18-point victory from the Tigers.

TRIPLE TEAM. Despite being guarded by three Edwardsville players, Trojanette Stephanie Walker manages to get her shot off in Madison's 51-33 victory over the Tigers on Thursday. The victory increased Madison's record to 17-2. The Trojanettes will play their final regular season game tonight at Marquette.

IMA blames legislature for loss of Illinois jobs

The annual Manufacturing Jobs Quotient (MJQ) which the Illinois Manufacturers' Association (IMA) compiles from voting records in the General Assembly is that group's way of measuring concern for maintaining and creating manufacturing jobs in Illinois.

The MJQ for 1983 targets, among others, State Senate Pres. Philip J. Rock of Chicago. He is seeking the Democratic U.S. Senate nomination in March.

Five of the legislators—all in the Senate and all Democrats—were rated zero. Along with Rock, they are Arthur L. Berman of Evanston, Earlean Collins of Chicago, Kenneth D. Hall of East St. Louis and Dawn Clark Lutey of Chicago.

Forty-six legislators—29 in the House and 17 in the Senate—were rated 100 in a tally of seven legislative standards; 46 of the 118 representatives voted with the IMA 60 percent or more of the time, and 43 voted with the IMA 66 percent of the time.

In the Senate, 22 of the 59 members voted with the IMA 60 percent of the time. On the average, House Republicans voted with the IMA 90 percent of the time. Democrats averaged 35.7 percent during that period, with a 40 score assigned to Rep. Sam Wolf (D).

Senate Republicans voted with the IMA 92 percent of the time. Democrats averaged 23 percent, including a 15 score for Sen. Sam Vadalabene.

Sixty votes are required to pass a bill in the House and 30 in the Senate. The "weight factor" given each bill was judgmental, based on the importance of the legislation to manufacturing jobs in Illinois.

Issues were a union utility board, interest rates, public employee bargaining, expanded arbitration, workers' compensation, hazardous disposal and employee records.

Arthur Gottschalk, a former legislator who is now president of the Illinois Manufacturers' Association, commented, "For many years, the IMA has rated legislators according to their support of industrial business issues. That information was made available to the 5,300 members and plants. This year, we decided to make it available to the general public."

"With so much of the political debate centering on the business climate in Illinois—and how it might be helping or hurting business—it is important for the public to be aware of those who are helping to create jobs and those who are sending jobs off to other states."

"I would like to emphasize the jobs facet of the larger business issue."

"There is a common misconception that legislation hurting business is only damaging to a small number of affluent shareholders. That is not the case."

"In fact, businesses that leave Illinois often flourish in their new locations. It is the workers left behind in the towns and cities of Illinois—and their families—who find themselves devastated by financial misfortune."

"Legislators—sometimes proudly—support anti-business legislation. But they are, in fact, producing anti-jobs laws."

"People of the state suffer a double whammy as tax revenues are replaced by public assistance needs. Illinois, like its sister Great Lakes states, has an economic reliance on manufacturing. Consequently, these states have suffered disproportionately in the recent economic downturn. And these states will be slower to enjoy the full benefits of the current recovery."

"Many factors have affected our economic climate: foreign imports, an over-priced dollar on international markets, high interest rates, just to name a few."

"Many of these factors are the products of the cyclical nature of our economy, actions of the international community or decisions made by Congress."

"A strong contributing factor, however, has been negative, anti-industry attitudes of a substantial percentage of the legislature."

"Instead of meeting factors beyond our control with a legislative agenda designed to bolster Illinois business, some members of the General Assembly have exacerbated the situation. Many legislators seem to seek political advantage by punishing business for the poor economic climate they themselves helped to create."

"The result of this anti-business agenda is a steady exodus of jobs and capital to more friendly climates, including overseas. In recent years, hundreds of thousands of Illinois residents have lost their jobs in large measure because of the actions—or inactions—of the Illinois legislature."

"Anti-business themes sound good on the campaign trail until the 'closed' sign goes up on the factory gate."

"Often, those of us who are obligated to call attention to the inadequacies of our business climate are criticized by public officials. We are told that business development in Illinois is hurt by our voiced concerns. Like the philosopher's riddle of the sound of the tree falling in the forest, they suggest that if no one knows of the harmful legislation, it will not exist."

"We believe self-deception serves no useful purpose—and that the business climate in Illinois will improve only when the public is fully aware of the issues."

"In the past, we have strongly criticized the governor for his endorsement of a stream of anti-business legislation. We have also indicated our approval of his actions where this has been justified. We would much rather praise public officials than criticize them."

SARAH CIRCLE PLANS CHURCH WIDE PROJECT

Members of Sarah Circle of the Christian Women's Fellowship of Central Christian Church, met last week, in the home of Flora Mae Lensing for a breakfast study at 9:30 a.m.

The West 22nd Street Baptist Church located at 2800 W. 22nd St., will observe its 25th anniversary on March 4 with special services and social events, according to the Rev. Louis Thiele, pastor.

Homemakers study 'Vegetables-Basics to Gourmet'

"Vegetables: From Basics to Gourmet" was the lesson taught by Jane Parkinson and Judy Baker at the February meeting of Creative Homemakers Extension Unit at the home of Mickey Strack. Mrs. Parkinson and Mrs. Baker prepared Greek Spinach Pie, Mellowed Rutabaga, Tofu Stir-Fry, Sunchoke salad and Jicama Apple Crisp which were enjoyed by the 21 members and guests in attendance.

Roll call was answered with a special Valentine remembered or fact or fictional information about Abraham Lincoln or George Washington. Many interesting facts were shared by members Jan Perkins, Judy Martin, Diane Gohardt, Martha Leavell, Arla Ault, Joanna Spencer, Debbie Harshany, Donna Warren, Sue Brinkhoff, Sylvia Massman, Lois Hoy, Karen Nelson, Joan Stark, Gene Zinn, Becky Lewis, Gail Fritzsche, Bonnie MacArthur and guest Lorraine Parkinson, as well as members previously mentioned.

Creative Homemakers Unit will strive to reach their membership goal of six new members plus some additional contributing members, it was announced. Gail Fritzsche gave a brief report on back care and some exercises to promote better back care, and Arla Ault reported on the progress of the G.C. Nova 4-H Club. Mickey Strack will attend the craft workshop on March 1, and plans will soon be announced for the May 1 district meeting, the chairman noted.

Members celebrating February birthdays contributed to "Pennies for Friendship." Karen Nelson reminded members of their March dues.

Unit Chairman Martha Leavell announced the March meeting will be held at the home of Joanna Spencer, 3204 Newell Drive, with Becky Lewis as co-hostess and Arla Ault will be one of the local leaders presenting the lesson on insect control around the house. Members are urged to bring a prospective new member to the next meeting on March 19 at 7 p.m. Members interested in learning the needlecrafts to be taught at the March 1 training session should contact Mrs. Strack to obtain the necessary supplies to do the craft at the March 19 meeting. Mrs. Leavell said.

Mrs. Delps reviews book at Thorngate meeting

In keeping with the various events observed in the month of February, Mrs. Lillian Delps reviewed a book entitled "Perfect Tribute" for members of Thorngate Garden Club, attending a meeting hosted by Mrs. Betty King.

The book, written in the late 1800's era, was a tribute to a southern gentleman to Abraham Lincoln after the Gettysburg Address, Mrs. Delps explained.

Roll call was answered, by each member, with a quotation relating to George Washington or Lincoln, followed by a program on the history of Valentine's Day from the ancient Roman festival, presented by Mrs. Pat Polley.

During the business segment club members voted to host a picnic party for 10 residents of the Troy Shelter Home.

A surprise box, that contained a pecan pie prepared by Mrs. Delps, was won and purchased by Enid Bolen.

Prior to the meeting a luncheon featuring a "bowl of heaven" prepared from the prize winning recipe submitted by the Tommy King, husband of the hostess, served with a dessert course. Mr. King won the honor in the 1983 St. Louis Post Dispatch cooking competition for his special chili dish.

President Jean Bethel announced tentative plans for a travelogue as the program for the next meeting to be held in the home of Jane White. Others attending were Beulah Miller, Helen Polley, June Lux, June Markham, Joyce Bettorf, Wanda Fitzsimmon, Clara Schilling and Wanda Herman, a former member who was reinstated.

Cancel tonight's consumer board meeting in Venice

Today's near blizzard weather condition has prompted cancellation of the first public meeting of the new Venice Utility Consumer Board, which was scheduled for 6:30 tonight at the Venice Recreation Center.

The Rev. Harold Wilson, who is serving as board chairman, said this morning the meeting is tentatively reset for 6:30 p.m. Monday, March 5. However, a precise date will be announced later this week.

A representative of the Illinois Commerce Commission from Springfield had agreed to attend tonight's session, Wilson advised, adding it is hoped she will be available to take part in the discussions on the new date.

Others who were to attend this evening's meeting were: Loven Morineau, customer service supervisor for Illinois Power, and Rick Moore, 17 assistant supervisor, and Dwight Quinn, co-chairman of Operation Turn On (OTO), an East St. Louis consumer-oriented organization.

Formation of the new consumer board by Wilson, president of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP)'s Madison Branch, and the Rev. John Henry Williams, president of the Venice Park Board, came in response to numerous telephone calls and conversations with area residents concerned about increased costs of utility bills, especially gas heating expenses.

After stopping a vehicle occupied by four men in 2500 block of Madison Avenue at 4:45 p.m. Friday, officers found an open quart bottle of beer in the auto, it was alleged.

The driver, Joe Neal, 36, of St. Louis, was charged with illegal transportation of alcohol and with not having a driver's license.

The passengers, Herbert Body, 36, and Raymel Powells, 34, both of St. Louis, and Nelson Stovall, 34, of Wellston, Mo., who also is listed as using the name Charles Wallace, all were charged with illegal possession of alcohol.

Stovall also was charged with misdemeanor theft.

Neal was released at 8:20 p.m. Friday upon posting a $102 cash bond, with Body and Powells freed at the same time on $52 cash bonds. Stovall was released at 10:30 p.m. Friday after posting a $154 cash bond.

INTIMIDATION IS ALLEGED

Al D. Sims, 24, of 4732 Warnock Ave., arrested last week on four counts of disorderly conduct and one count of intimidation, appeared before Circuit Judge George Moran Jr. at 1:30 p.m. Thursday. A preliminary hearing is to be set and he was released on $2,102 bail. Frequent harassment of the Schriber family at 2109 Missouri Ave. is alleged.

abusing the city's sick leave policy. McMillan said Friday the sick leave policy is not being abused by his employees.

The superintendent did expect, however, to conduct a sick leave policy talk with one employee. The staff member apparently has had a prolonged illness and is under a physician's care, although no written notice has been submitted.

The sick leave policy of the city became an issue again last week when Alderman Stephen Saltich objected to the number of dollars being spent for sick leave throughout the city. He was joined by several other aldermen, also objecting to the absentee rates of some employees.

The Rev. Terry Shea of St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church was to undergo surgery for a brain tumor at 7:30 a.m. today at Firmin Desloge Hospital, St. Louis.

Rev. Shea suffered a stroke while teaching a class Monday, Feb. 20, at church and was taken to St. Elizabeth's Hospital. He remained a patient at the local hospital until tests were completed Thursday and his medical condition was diagnosed to be the result of a brain tumor, it was learned.

Rev. Shea was transferred Friday to Firmin Desloge Hospital. He has been at St. Margaret Mary Church for the past 3½ years and, in addition to his own parishioners, has many friends in the area.

Arrest Louisiana resident for DUI

Noticing a green Buick traveling south in the 2900 block of Washington Avenue and allegedly weaving in and out of the traffic lanes at 9:40 p.m. Saturday, officers halted the driver at 29th Street and Washington Avenue.

As the officers started to get out of the squad car, the Buick began to roll backward, nearly colliding with the police vehicle. One of the officers quickly put his auto in reverse to avoid a collision, reports said.

In the Buick was George E. Rodenhous, 56, of New Orleans, La., who agreed to take a breathalyzer test and was charged with driving under the influence of alcohol and driving with a revoked license.

He remained in custody Sunday also on warrants issued by the Missouri County (Ill.) Sheriff's Department, where authorities were contacted and agreed to pick up Rodenhous if he was unable to make bond on the warrants, reports stated.

2-car crash causes injury to 1 driver

A two-car collision at the intersection of Bissell Street and Illinois Route 3 occurred at 2:30 a.m. Friday, resulting in injuries to one of the parties.

Samuel Walters, 48, of St. Louis, was treated at St. Elizabeth Medical Center for injuries suffered. The driver of the other vehicle, Eugene Kierski, 810 Washington Ave., Madison, was southbound on Route 3 in the left lane and Walters was pulling onto Route 3 from Bissell Street when they collided. Kierski stated that he swerved to keep from hitting Walters' auto, but he did not succeed. No charges were filed.

Youths try to rob woman of groceries

A young woman who lives in the 2000 block of Washington Avenue told police at 7:30 p.m. Friday that two youths, one with a knife, approached her in the 1000 block of the Kirkpatrick Homes and tried to pull a box of groceries she was carrying from her arms.

The victim, 18, said that one youth pulled out an open buck-type knife and placed the knife against her back, telling her to give them the box of groceries.

When she replied, "No," the second youth tried to pull the box from her arms, but she grabbed the container and ran to a friend's apartment in the 700 block block of the Kirkpatrick Homes, with the youths in pursuit, the woman told officers.

The pair fled when she reached the vicinity of the apartment, she said, and a search of the area by authorities failed to locate the assailants.

Both youths were 15 or 16 years old. The youth who held the knife was about 5 feet, 4 inches tall, weighed 150 pounds and was stockily built. He had brown hair to his shoulders and was wearing a grey jacket and jeans. The second youth, also about 5 feet, 4 inches tall, had blond curly hair and wore jeans, she said.

ALLEGED 4 JUVENILES HAVE ALCOHOL IN CAR

Two youths, 16 years old, and two girls, 15 and 16 years old, all from Granite City, were charged with being minors in possession of alcohol when a vehicle with Missouri license plates in which they were riding was stopped by police at 29th and State streets at 9:30 p.m. Friday.

The young people had a two-liter soda bottle containing an alcoholic mixture in the auto, it was alleged. The three passengers were released on notices to appear for hearings. The driver was released about three hours later after posting a $52 cash bond.

Allen unopposed as Democratic nominee for state's attorney post

By BILL WINTER
of the Press-Record

Richard "Dick" Allen of Granite City is not one of the Democratic Elected Madison County Officials running for county office, since he does not yet hold such an office. But he would like to be an elected official, and this could be his year.

Persistence and patience may enable Allen to prevail in 1984. Bad breaks have been replaced by good breaks.

Denied the 1980 nomination by only a handful of votes when there was a nearly "dead heat" three-way finish among Democratic contenders, he is—in sharp contrast—entirely unopposed on March 20, 1984.

Seven and a half months after that, on Nov. 6, he will face one of two Republican aspirants, either incumbent State's Attorney Don Weber or James Heil, a former Madison County Board member.

Although either of them could wage a formidable campaign, Allen will have the advantage of being a member of the county's majority party, in addition to his own long experience and wide acquaintance.

The Granite City lawyer is campaigning with a much lower profile than the Republican combatants, but he will step up his activities as the year progresses.

Charles R. Burns and Steve Maragides also filed for the Democratic prosecutorial nomination this year but both withdrew from the ballot, saying that Allen appeared to be unstoppable.

Now 58, the onetime "Mr. Young Democrat" is the father of three—Cindy, 27, a graduate of the University of Illinois, Michael, 25, a graduate of Blackburn College, and Dana, 20, a student at Illinois College, Jacksonville. The family resides at 2623 Delmar Ave.

A past president of Co-Ordinated Youth Services, Allen is a CYS board member now and previously served on the Tri-City Area YMCA board. He was on the Madison County public defender's legal staff from 1971 through 1979.

He operates an active law practice, having established it in 1962, and serves as an assistant state's attorney under three Democratic prosecutors, Dick H. Mudge Jr., Joseph Bartylak and Nicholas Byron.

Allen is a former city attorney in the Granite City municipal government.

Key themes of his 1984 campaign are "a return to responsible handling of the power of the state's attorney's office" and "unification of Madison County Democrats for the 1984 presidential election."

A lifelong Granite Cityan except for service in World War II, he is the son of Lucia Allen and the late Milton R. Allen.

His father served on the Granite City Park Board and on the Madison County Board of Supervisors for many years and was a member of the popular Borestone Foursome vocal quartet.

Dick Allen served with the 13th Armored Division of the U.S. Army in France, Germany and Austria, seeing service with the late General George Patton's Third Army.

The state's attorney candidate worked at the former General Steel Castings plant in Granite City as an inside ironworker and was a member of United Steelworkers of America Local 1022 for two years before entering law school.

To help finance his college and law classes, he worked as a laborer out of Granite City Laborers Local 397 and as an oiler with Operating Engineers Local 520.

His memberships include the Tri-City Bar Association, Madison County Mental Health Board, Madison County Bar Association and First United Presbyterian Church of Granite City. He has served on the board of trustees of the church.

Allen was a YMCA boys' club leader and treasurer of the Niedringhaus School Parent-Teacher Association.

He served on the board of the Madison County Legal Aid Society, as a trustee of the County Bar, and as a hearing officer for both the American Arbitration Association and the Environmental Protection Agency.

He is a lifetime member of the Town and Country Gun Club and a former member of the American Veterans Committee, Coalition for the Environment, Psychological Research Society of St. Louis, Common Cause and Madison County Citizens' Environmental Council.

A graduate of Illinois College and of the St. Louis University School of Law, Allen practices law through his office at 2945 Madison Ave. He primarily handles criminal law, personal injury litigation and family court cases.

He is counsel for the Long Lake volunteer fire department and the Cloverleaf-East Madison fire protection district.

The 1962 Granite City Democratic Party chairman has had a keen interest in politics throughout his life. Allen was a close friend and political ally of the late State's Attorney Mudge, a wartime pilot who "bombed" post-war Madison County with brochures promising to rid the county of gangsters. Allen served as a special investigator for Mudge before becoming one of his assistant prosecutors.

Active as an independent Democrat for a number of years, Allen helped form the Committee to Elect Independent Democrats. He campaigned for Emil Toffant for sheriff, and Sheriff Toffant endorsed him for state's attorney four years ago.

Among the regional and statewide campaigns in which Allen participated were those of Congressman Melvin Price, the late U.S. Senator Paul H. Douglas and the late Governor Adlai Stevenson. Allen organized the Madison County Young Democrats in 1984. He has been a Democratic precinct committeeman continuously since 1962 and was instrumental in formation of the Granite City Democratic Club in 1967.

He also assisted in organizing the Democratic Federation of Illinois (DFI) in 1968.

In 1969, Allen was appointed as Downstate Illinois organizational director for the DFI. He later served as a campaign "truth squad" member.

He led Citizens for Eugene McCarthy locally in the 1968 presidential primary campaign and has managed numerous campaigns here, from the precinct level to mayor.

Allen managed Mudge's successful 1960 campaign for state's attorney and Mudge's unsuccessful 1970 race for state senator.

Allen lost when he ran for supervisor of Granite City Township in 1977.

He has designated retired Appellate Judge George Moran Sr. to manage his campaign this year.

Allen as state's attorney would set up a warrant office in several areas to facilitate issuance of warrants and conserve policemen's time. He says they now "wait in line in one central office and spend hours to determine if the warrant will be issued in their case."

The candidate says he would encourage "a more professional working relationship" with police and deputies.

Allen proposes a liaison system, with the county divided into population units. In each unit, seasoned trial attorneys would aid law enforcement staffs and try to expand communications between the county and communities.

Asserting that Toffant's "efficient recognition and handling of rural crime" have increased the workload, he says he would assign an experienced assistant prosecutor to work mainly with the sheriff's office and avoid a backlog of cases.

The candidate would form a non-lawyer, professional advisory committee to meet regularly and offer ideas on defendant adjustments, sentencing recommendations and the problem of repeat offenders.

Allen proposes a consumer division to deal with ecology, pollution violations, welfare fraud and anyone thought to be attempting to "rip off" consumers.

He accuses the incumbent prosecutor of encouraging political campaign contributions by staff members. Allen says he would change the custom and "eliminate political tug collections."

Allen promises increased contact and cooperation between prosecutors and police, accompanied by "de-emphasis of the sensationalism that has been the hallmark of the Weber administration."

The Granite Cityan comments, "Criminal prosecution is never the work of the state's attorney's office alone."

"Every legitimate conviction is based on the hard work of a police department."

"I have been fortunate to enjoy a good working relationship with many highly-skilled officers and detectives."

He would try to hire a "skilled criminal trial staff" and would "utilize not only their court experience but also their advice."

Allen blames the policies of President Ronald Reagan for unemployment, business failures, cutbacks in human services, and expenditure of billions of dollars for nuclear and other weapons.

He calls Weber "Mr. Reagan's chief spokesman" in Madison County and sees the November election as offering voters a chance to elect Democrats at all levels—including the White House and the position of state's attorney (chief county prosecutor).

Allen concludes that citizens need not look to Weber or Heil to find someone who would be "tough on crime. There were never any complaints when I was prosecuting cases."

Cost of living increase for VA compensations

Andrew Gitchoff, commander of Quad-Cities Chapter 53, Disabled American Veterans, reported at the February meeting that he was unofficially informed that the House and Senate had agreed on a 3.5 percent cost of living increase in VA compensation and the bill was sent to President Ronald Reagan for his signature.

The effective date will be April 1, 1984 and the increase will show on May checks. Pensioners were previously awarded a 3.5 percent cost of living increase in January of this year, he said.

He also announced that the DAV Mobile Service Van will be in Granite City again, but the date has not yet been set. Larry Lockhart and Lawrence McGuire will be in charge of arrangements for the service van visit.

Larry Lockhart said the DAV and Auxiliary accompanied the Senior Citizens Rhythm Band who performed for the veterans at John Cochran VA Hospital during "Salute to Veterans" week on Feb. 15th. He reported that two members have died, Harry Bloodworth and George Lipscomb, and Eldon Curtright is recovering at home.

Edwin Roberts was elected chaplain to replace George Lipscomb. Gitchoff, Joseph Heffler, Larry Lockhart and Lawrence McGuire were elected delegates to the state convention, to be held in Champaign later this year.

Heffler reported that the chapter membership now stands at 397 and the membership for Illinois, at the end of January was 20,607.

Lunch was served after the meeting.

Engineers offered opportunities at Summer University

Under the sponsorship of Summer University, a new entry point will be added in the School of Engineering at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, according to William Hord, acting dean. There will also be additional offerings in electrical engineering.

The School of Engineering plan runs through the entire summer quarter from June 16 to Aug. 31. "The short title of the system is 'Fast Track,'" Dean Hord says. "The student can opt to take this opportunity—which starts in the summer—after completing the pre-engineering program."

IN THE PAST, the engineering program has run for two years from September to June, or essentially 21 months, according to Hord. "Fast Track" allows the student to start in the summer instead of waiting for fall. Thus the engineering program can be completed in a year and a half rather than the full two years. "Hord developed the project with the primary intention of making better use of existing resources. He is seeking to provide students with a quicker way out, a faster exit from the university.

Classes will be run like classes in the regular curriculum. "Actually, there's no difference except that they will be available for the first time this summer," Hord said. "This marks an important departure from past practice." IN THE PAST, there was no strong demand for this kind of offering, Hord noted. "But now there is. I am looking forward to experimenting and making better use of the physical resources already available in the summer. In essence, we're expanding the capacity of the program without requiring new faculty," he observed.

In the area of electrical engineering, courses normally scheduled for the fall quarter will be offered by the Summer University. This will provide openings for 36 additional students, taking two courses and a laboratory.

"They figure that at least 25 students will take advantage of having the courses and the lab available for the summer quarter," Hord said. "But we are prepared to accept up to 36. This has been on the planning board for a long time."

"WHEN WE OFFER electrical engineering courses only once during the regular academic year, our students have encountered problems," Hord explained. "Should a student happen to fail a course or have a schedule slightly out of sequence at the beginning of the year, the delay could run a full year. This gives us expanded scheduling flexibility, something existing and prospective students have been asking for."

Those interested in the new entry program for engineering students, or in the expanded engineering courses, should contact Acting Dean William Hord, SIUE School of Engineering, at 1-692-3600.

SIUE concert features 'Oldies' music

"Oldies But Goodies—The Choral Music We Grew Up With" will comprise the next evening of song by the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville Chorus, the Concert Chorus and the Community Choral Society. The concert will be presented on Monday, March 5, at 8:15 p.m. in the Communications Building theater.

Guest Conductor Kenneth Billups, supervisor of music for the St. Louis Public Schools, will join SIUE choral director Leonard Van Camp for the program, which spans the years 1900-1960.

ANYONE WHO has sung in mixed choir, attended church, or gone to choral concerts will find something attractive here," Van Camp says. The Lutkin "Choral Blessing," Christiansen's "Beautiful Saviour," and music of Bortniansky, Tortius Noble, Clarence Dickinson, and Dudley Buck will represent the first three decades of this century.

The depression years will be recalled by two selections of the late Noble Cain, a personal friend of Billups, who will conduct this portion of the concert. His appearance will conclude with a Bach selection made famous by John Finley Williamson, and Fred Waring's arrangement of "Dry Bones."

The period of the Second World War and Robert Shaw's early days will be recalled by: "This Is My Country," "Set Down Servant," a Liebeslieder waltz, and "Polly Wolly Doodle." Concert selections of the Roger Wagner Choral, The Gregg Smith Singers, and the Norman Luboff Choir will include works by Victoria, Faure, Terri, Ives, Lasso and Luboff folk song arrangements. The finale will be the familiar Wilhousky setting of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic."

SIUC sponsors program to Rome

Southern Illinois University-Carbondale's Department of Comprehensive Planning and Design is sponsoring a six-week summer study program in Rome for young aficionados of European architecture and design.

The June-July excursion will be offered for academic credit and is open to high school and college students interested in design, according to program coordinator David S. Clarke, an SIUC associate professor of design.

ON THE AGENDA is a four-week studio course in Rome, followed by a two-week tour of the regions of Umbria, Tuscana, Emilia, Venetia and Lombardy. "In terms of design and design history, Italy is more comprehensive and more currently active than any other European country," said Clarke.

The course will embrace the disciplines of architecture and design (urban, product, interior and fashion) with an emphasis on history. Tours of such Italian corporations as Ferrari and Olivetti will be conducted to illustrate trends in contemporary design, Clarke said. In a four-week studio phase students will undertake professionally-oriented design projects in their own fields. Each student will be required to complete two sketches each day and assemble a presentation suitable for public display.

WHILE IN Rome, students will stay at the Pensione Arenula, adjacent to Villa Centi on the Lungotevere, a tree-lined quay on the Tiber River.

The cost to students is $1,351, which includes 45 days of lodging (double occupancy), ground transportation and insurance. Air fare, meals and tuition are not included. The program is limited to 18 students.

Interested persons may register through SIUC's Division of Continuing Education, 1-536-7751.

IN LOVING memory of LORENZO DOUGHERTY,
Feb. 27, 1983. Though suffered he breathed on a numeral, for the Comforter stood by her side, and whispered, "I am with thee, with me, shall thou ever abide." On the river a pale boatman hastened, he heard the soft piped of his harp, then from earth and sorrow he bore her, across to that beautiful shore. — Forever missed

Workshops focus on avoiding stray voltage

By GORDON BILLINGSLEY

Workshops to help farmers uncover sources of profit-robbing stray voltage and learn techniques for electrical wiring in "hostile environments" will be featured at the 23rd annual Southern Illinois Farm Materials Handling Show in Nashville, Ill.

Specialists in agricultural electrification will conduct stray voltage workshops at 11 a.m., 1 p.m. and 3 p.m. Feb. 28 and similar sessions on wiring in a hostile environment at the same times Feb. 29. The show will run Feb. 28 through March 1 at the Washington County Fairgrounds in Nashville.

Admission to the workshops and to the fairgrounds is free, according to show planner. The gates open at 9 a.m. each day. Closing time is 9 p.m. on Tuesday and Wednesday and 3 p.m. Thursday.

Each year, about 10,000 farmers attend the three-day show to see the latest in farm and homestead automation.

About 150 exhibit spaces filled with equipment that pumps, stirs, blows, dries, carries, holds, heats, cools and grinds the farm-generated materials such as grain, manure and even animals will be on display, according to Royce Carter, who is in charge of exhibits for the show's planning committee. He is member services director of the Wayne-White Counties Electric Cooperative.

"We'll also have some of the latest electronic equipment in agriculture—computers, monitors, detectors and analyzers," Carter said.

Free tax help offered

Free tax assistance is available through VITA, the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance program, sponsored by the Internal Revenue Service, on Wednesdays at the Mexican Honorary Commission, 1801 Spruce St. and the Urban League, 306 Broadway, Venice.

VITA helps low income, elderly, non-English speaking and handicapped taxpayers fill out Form 1040EZ, Form 1040A or the basic Form 1040. Volunteers also alert taxpayers to the special credits and deductions for which they may be eligible, such as the child care and earned income credits, the tax credit for the elderly and deduction for certain medical and dental expenses.

However, VITA volunteers do not handle complicated tax matters, according to the IRS.

Taxpayers coming to either location should bring this year's tax package, usually received through the mail, wage and earnings statements (Form W-2) from all employers, the interest statements received from banks (Form 1099), a copy of last year's tax return, if available, and any other relevant information concerning income and expenses.

Aid at the MHC building is offered from 6:30 to 9 p.m. each Wednesday and the Urban League is assisting persons by appointment between 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. each Wednesday. The number to call for an appointment with the Urban League is 1-463-1906.

Citation hearing in fatal highway crash

Issued a citation (traffic ticket) after a fatal highway crash Wednesday evening, Feb. 22, Paula Louise Williams, 16, Rural Route One, is scheduled for a hearing at 9 a.m. March 30.

The alleged traffic law violation was failure to yield the right-of-way at an intersection.

A motorcyclist, Robert F. Jones, 18, of 4908 Carl St., a Granite City High School senior, was injured critically in the 6:30 p.m. crash and died at 9:20 p.m. at St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

Funeral services were planned for today at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church, with burial at Lakeview Memorial Gardens, Belleville.

His cousin, Leroy M. Sloan, 12, of 4901 Carl, a passenger on the northbound motorcycle, was admitted to SEMC with a leg fracture and multiple cuts and bruises.

Northbound and southbound traffic on Illinois Route Three has the right-of-way at West Pontoon Road.

The Williams auto was eastbound and she related stopping at a stop sign and again at a grass median that divides the four-lane state highway. The collision was between the front of the car and the left side of the motorcycle.

INJURED ON NIEDRINGHAUS

William Blyen, 60, Collinsville, suffered minor injuries last week while a passenger in the auto of Charles Brewer, East St. Louis, eastbound on Niedringhaus Avenue. There was damage to its left side and the front of the car of Katherine VanOrder, 2103a Amos Ave., southbound on Madison Avenue.

NEED FOR AUTOMOTIVE SHOP in which to teach vocational students at Granite City High School is being discussed by school officials and citizens. This photograph, one of those viewed by the Board of Education, shows auto repair in action taking place outdoors. The North High auto shop from 1980 to 1983 included access for vehicles but the new shop at the combined high school lacks such access. Estimates say a separate building might cost $125,000 to $175,000; an auxiliary Vocational Advisory Council will study possible ways to establish it over a period of time.

Woman finds male intruder in home

Effie Dean, 624 Lincoln Ave., Venice, said she returned home Wednesday night to find a male intruder in her home. Mrs. Dean said when she went into her bedroom, she saw a black male standing by her closet.

She said she started to yell but he told her to be quiet and that he would not hurt her. The subject further stated that he wanted to leave and that he thought white people lived in her home.

Mrs. Dean said she let him leave and that she has not noticed anything missing, although her bedroom had been ransacked. She said she could not identify the man again.

Entry had been gained into her home by taking the lock off a basement door.
